The following address has been issued by the Executive Committee of the Citizens' Association:

To the Business-Men and Property-Owners of Chicago:

Understanding a part of our duty to consult in calling the attention of the community from time to time, as occasion may require, to those which demand the action of citizens, and feeling that the present emergency, growing out of our imperfect protection against fire, calls for the most energetic and uniring effort on the part of every individual identified with Chicago's interests, we desire to place before you some facts bearing on the subject, and to point out what we conceive to be some of our duties as citizens, in the hope of inducing a speedy adoption of all possible safeguards. It is well known that a number of highly respectable and influential gentlemen composing

THE NATIONAL BOARD OF UNDERWRITERS have recommended the withdrawal from all of the insurance companies under their control. To whatever degree their precipitate action may be open to criticism, and however indignantly our pride may revolt at their seeming dictation, the alarming fact remains that these gentlemen decline to longer transact business in this city. We characterize it as an alarming fact, because they represent by far the largest and most reliable insurance interests of this country, together with all the foreign capital available. Our commercial organization is of such a nature that no large city can conduct its business without insurance. It is the foundation stone upon which our commercial organization stands. Take it away, and the whole system crumbles to the ground a disorganized mass. The question as to whether a system thus organized is the best that can be adopted for promoting the commercial prosperity of the city we cannot decide. Be it so or not, the fact that Chicago, of all cities, can least afford now to incur a new system must be apparent to all.

For the sad experience of the last three years this community is painfully aware of the alarming possibilities of configuration. The effects of the ravages committed by the great fire of 1871, notwithstanding our wonderful recovery, are still apparent in various directions, and will be for years to come. The fire of last July caused us the peculiar damage of absolutely unsettling confidence in our security as a city in the minds of the people at a distance; although we of Chicago breathed more freely after it, knowing it to have swept away the danger that most threatened us. Confidence not only in its integrity, but also in its ability to protect property, is vital to the commercial extension of any community. The only way in which this confidence can be restored is to take prompt measures to recall the protection these insurance men have withdrawn from us. — Editor of the Tribune.

Six: Miss Catherine Beecher, in a communication published in your paper on Friday last, says:
"The Brooklyn scandal is the proprietor of the Independent." My reply to this statement is, that it is wholly false, — Editor of the Tribune.

Six: — She says that "proprietor of the Independent," is the Independent itself, and that it is the only journal in the world that she has no acquaintance with me; perhaps never seen me. Miss Beecher has probably forgotten that I was a banker for a number of years, and a member of the bar. I believe, had done before, that I desired the account of my books, not to obtain a loan, but to have them visited at my house in Brooklyn and, at Woodstock. Her individual opinion of me is that I am a good man, but not a very good one.

Third: Miss Beecher says that "various gentlemen and ladies have informed me (her) of the meanderings of the Independent in this city." I have not seen any of these men or ladies, and I have not paid him a certain sum which he alleged was due. — He finally induced a close friend to come and see me on the subject, and I told him that I had done nothing, so long kept from my notes, and insisted on the spot that one whom I knew of my gentlemen should show me all the facts. He agreed to do this, and I have since seen him, and he certainly was a good man, but not a very good one.

Fourth: Miss Beecher further says that her friend, Mr. Beecher, is a good man, but not a very good one. — Editor of the Tribune.

MONEY AND COMMERCE.

MONETARY.

SATURDAY EVENING, Sept. 26.

During the first half of the week business at the banks was dull—if possible the dullest of the year. Banks were most generally nothing to do. Good customers would have instant welcome, but they failed to put in an appearance. The average falling off in the receipts of wheat was about 125,000 bushels per day over the receipts of the corresponding week a year ago, making a marked difference in the business of the banks. For the last half of the week business was a little better, corresponding with the increasing receipts of cereals. The country banks were more the best customers of our city institutions. We noticed a week or two ago a very considerable demand for money from Iowa to buy stock in sections of Kansas and Nebraska, where the grasshoppers and the drought had affected the crops and made it for the advantage of the farmers to sell. In fact, large numbers of them were forced to do so; while the corn crop in nearly all Iowa is bad. We hear that a number of men in that State have been convinced that it will yield 150,000,000 bushels. This may seem a large figure; but some of the countries, as we will, will yield 500,000,000. That is as it may, the crop is bad, and it will require a large amount of it to put up the country west of the Missouri can furnish a large part of that stock; but will feed it; and the State Agricultural and Mutual Life Insurance Company has invested $70,000 in city property the past week. These loans are less than they were last year, when they amounted to $126,000, but it must be remembered that the funds in the hands of the banks in any month or week of 1874 generally fall very short of any month or week of 1873.

The demand for dry goods was not specially active, but a very fair aggregate of sales was accomplished, and all things considered, the movement was probably up to date, with most lines firmly held.

The following trust deeds were given to secure part purchase-money: $25,000 in 160 acres of land, $10,000 in trust, on April 1, 1874.

During the week New York exchange gradually worked down from 91 to 89 1/2, and for the first half of the week sold between banks at the same figure. Thursday and Friday it became closer, and on Saturday was firm between banks at par. Customers supplied at par.

Race at Dexter Park—The Cricket Match.

Why Weston Failed.

THE TURF.

There will be a "scrub" race at Dexter Park this afternoon for a purse of $100, which will be open to all horses on payment of an entry fee of 10 per cent. The horse coming the nearest to winning 3 minutes will be declared the winner, and each horse shall have three trials. The suggestion relative to the race between Fullerton, Glister, American, Girl and Bodine, made the other day by a reader of the Tribune, has attracted the attention of Mr. Mansfield, who has written to the owner, and has written to the owners of the three fine-hammed horses, inquiring if it is their intention to go to California and pass through here en route. If so, he will endeavor to arrange a return for them, and if not, will meet with a liberal share of the facts in the collision.

THE FACTS IN THE COLLISION.

As they occurred, and then the history of the cause that led thereto according to the statement of the contestants.

Mr. Mansfield has secured a lease of Mrs. Weston's property from Mr. Phelan, estate manager having duly assigned it to him. Early last week the necessary documents having been made out, he took possession of the property, and is not wishing to wait for a little while to locked it up, and waited to organize a company.

Mr. E. L. Dickey had a claim to the Opera-House, which will be spoken of presently.

That was Mr. Dickey's and taken possession, but he has since withdrawn the claim.

Mr. Dickey collected his forces Wednesday, and marched to the back-door of the Opera-House. Grover had the key, and Dickey was in the lobby, when he was met by the latter, therefore, to the door.

Not being disposed to the former mode of entering, he broke open the door, and took possession with a flourish. "I am the owner of the property," he orders not to desecrate the shop. They were to summon the police and fire departments, the State militia, or, if necessary, appeal to the National Guard.

Mr. Grover, in the meantime, got wine of this move, and proceeded to oust the invaders, as he considered them. Yesterday afternoon, armed with his lease, and backed by a posse of his friends, he made his way into the theatre with his brother, B. H. Grover, Mr. Thompson, and another person.

They coolly walked in, sat down on the stage, and claimed their seats. Their conduct was so impudent, Grover, to the Attorney, when he was detained until bailed out. The charge against them was riot.
